DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification lacks any mention of subject matter of a substantial entirety of the signal to be determined. Claims 1 and 10 state that a signal energy detecting arrangement that is configured to determine signal energy of a substantial entirety of the signal on the subscriber line. There is no teaching in the specification as to the particular operation of the signal energy detecting arrangement regarding a substantial entirety of the signal. This important information must be disclosed and included in the drawings to allow one of ordinary skill make or use the claimed invention.

Response to Amendment

3. Claims 1 and 10 were amended as indicated.
